STEP 01

Wait five working days.

Hiring takes time: approvals, other candidates, leave. Give it a full working week.

weekends don't count

STEP 02

Send one polite follow-up.

Subject: Following up on my interview for [Role]

Hi [Name],

Thank you again for the conversation on [day]. I'm still very interested in the [Role] role. Could you share an update on the next steps when you get a chance?

Thanks,
[Your name]

STEP 03

If it's a no, ask for one line of feedback.

Try: "Is there one thing I could do better next time?" A short, specific question is easier to answer.

STEP 04

Keep 3 other applications moving.

Never pause the hunt for one company. It's not you. It's the process.
